

News caster: Now, Nyan Soe is presenting about youth who stay at Mae Sot dump site and attending music, computer, English, Thai lessons for part time classes. 00:00:16-1

Journalist (Nyan Soe): Part time lessons are running about basic music, computer, English, and Thai to the youth who stay with their families in Mae Sot dump site on Saturday and Sunday. 00:00:37-1

Sayar Joe: I do not want these youth to always stay near this garbage pile area and work for their living. In the future, I want them to get knowledge, skills, and education so that they can go and work anywhere they want with the skills they have received. Then, my purpose is that the education of the children around here. 00:01:03-3

Journalist: This training has been opened for 5 months now. It is called “New Future”. 00:01:10-5

---- 00:01:15-0

Student 1: The reason for attending this training is... I will be able to teach to the new children when the teacher is not here anymore. I will be able to work for my living at the same time. 00:01:27-2

Journalist: In musical session, the teacher teaches basic guitar, drum, and piano. In computer subject, the teacher teaches basic typing in Microsoft words. 00:01:39-5

Student 2: The teacher asked us “Will you carry on doing the same job for your living?” Then I answered “No, I do not want to do this job anymore.” The teacher went and talked to a foreigner (Fred). After that, the foreigner bought the materials we need for this training. We started learning what we are interested. There are 4 basic trainings as I mentioned above. So I learnt the Drum. 00:01:58-3

Journalist: There are over 30 students in this training. Most of them are attending “Sky Blue school” for migrant children. They come and attend this training on Saturday and Sunday. 00:02:11-6

Playing music... 00:02:26-0

Journalist: Moreover, there are some children who do not go to school. They go around and collect the garbage with their parents. However, they are attending this “New Future” training on Saturday and Sunday. This training will give the education for them until they can make stable living with these skills they receive from “New Future.” 00:02:45-5

Playing drum... 00:02:54-1